

For further information please contact:

Paul Hodnefield
 Associate General Counsel
 Phone: (651) 494-1730
 Toll Free: (800) 927-9801, Ext 61730
 Email: paul.hodnefield@cscglobal.com

Other Uniform Acts Legislation 2019

Includes UCC Articles 1-8, UVTA, UCOTVA and Other Uniform Commercial Laws

Updated January 11, 2019

State	Bill	Introduced	Description	Status
Nebraska	L70	1/10/19	Enacts 2014 Uniform Voidable Transactions Act.	Pending
New Jersey	A2782	1/29/18	Enacts 2014 Uniform Voidable Transactions Act.	Carryover from 2018. Assigned to Financial Institutions and Insurance Committee.
North Dakota	H1045	1/3/18	Amends the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (UETA). The amendments add definitions for “blockchain technology” and “smart contracts.” It also provides that a signature secured through blockchain technology is considered to be in electronic form and an electronic signature. Likewise, a record or contract secured through blockchain technology is considered to be in electronic form and an electronic record. Finally, the bill provides that a person using blockchain technology to secure information the person owns or has the right to use retains the same rights of ownership or use with respect to that information as before the person secured the information using blockchain technology.	Assigned to House Industry, Business and Labor Committee.
South Carolina	S262	1/8/19	Enacts 2014 Uniform Voidable Transactions Act.	Assigned to the Senate Judiciary Committee.
United States	S2755	4/25/18	Allows the US Postal Service to offer basic financial services and makes the USPS subject to the provisions of UCC Article 4.	Assigned to the Senate Homeland Security and Government Affairs Committee.

State	Bill	Introduced	Description	Status
Utah	H97	1/9/19 Pre-Filed	Adopts the amendments to § 4A-108 that clarify the relationship of the federal Electronic Funds Transfer Act to UCC Article 4A.	Pending
Wyoming	H70	1/8/19	Requires the secretary of state to implement a new blockchain-based filing system through which all commercial records required by law to be filed with the secretary of state may be submitted. This would apply to business entity, UCC financing statements, statutory liens, and similar records.	Assigned to House Revenue Committee.