

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Bill Popeo

Bill Popeo serves on the advisory board of the Global Financial Markets division of CSC and is Chairman of the Board of CSC's wholly owned subsidiary, Delaware Trust Company. Global Financial Markets is a leading provider of specialized administration services business, supporting alternative asset managers, capital markets participants, and corporations and institutions requiring fiduciary and governance.

Bill is the former president of CSC's Global Financial Markets and former president and CEO of Delaware Trust Company. In past roles with CSC, Bill served as general counsel, CFO, and vice president of Operations. Over his 30-year career, Bill has served as a director and senior executive for a number of commercial real estate, high tech, and biotechnology companies including serving as director and chair of the audit committee of a publically traded real estate investment trust. He started his career in public accounting.

Popeo is an attorney and a certified public accountant. His charitable efforts include serving on the board of The Ministry of Caring, a Delaware based non-profit.

Popeo received his JD, MBA, and BA from Boston College.

 (302) 636-5401 x65810

 bpopeo@delawaretrust.com