

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Vic DeBari

Vic DeBari is the director of North American Business Development and Global Inside Sales at CSC. In addition, he oversees several key strategic sales and market development initiatives across the globe. He's responsible for developing unique solutions for businesses of all sizes. Vic is passionate about securing and protecting clients' online assets from the new threats that emerge daily in the digital world.

Prior to his role as global director, in 15 years with CSC, Vic has held positions in project management, marketing, account management, service, and sales. His experience in sales includes managing North American accounts, North American sales, and the global Middle Market. A multi-faceted leader, Vic has an enthusiasm for helping people develop their skills and takes an active role in team members' and colleagues' career development.

Vic is a graduate of the University of Delaware Lerner School of Business Administration with focus on operations management. He is also an alumnus of Leadership Delaware, a leadership development program which aims to impact and transform communities, non-profit, political, professional, and corporate leadership within the state of Delaware.

 +1 302 636 5401 x68593

 Vic.DeBari@cscglobal.com