

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Drew McMahon

Drew McMahon is associate director, Fund Services for CSC[®] Global Financial Markets (GFM) and focuses on business development for the U.S. Fund Administration business.

Previously Drew was a founding partner at Access Distribution Partners, which provided product development, marketing, and sales services to alternative asset managers. He was responsible for the day-to-day operations and finances of the firm as well as developing go-to-market strategies and implementing capital raising programs. Drew began his career working in the Equity Capital Markets group at Credit Suisse where he was the primary analyst to the technology, healthcare, and business services sectors for the origination and execution of IPOs, follow-ons, and equity-linked transactions.

Drew is a graduate of Georgetown University where he received a BA in economics. He holds a Master's degree from the London School of Economics and Political Science.

 (302) 425 9744

 Drew.McMahon@cscgfm.com