EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Jason J. Cummings

Jason J. Cummings, Esq., is a senior independent director contract specialist with CSC® Global Financial Markets. In his position, Jason analyzes and negotiates organizational agreements, contracts, and associated documents for various types of commercial transactions involving independent director engagement and compliance with bankruptcy remote entity provisions. This requires him to perform thorough risk assessments for compliance by evaluating individual state laws across the United States (and some international jurisdictions), drafting relevant language to comply with those corporate and alternative entity statutes, and negotiating those protections into the transaction.

Before joining CSC, Jason was a litigation attorney for nearly six years with a firm in Wilmington, Delaware. His practice included commercial transactions, insurance defense, professional liability, bankruptcy, corporate law, construction law, contract disputes, employment law, and general business litigation of all types. He represented a wide range of clients in Delaware, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, seeking general counsel and litigation services with proven success achieving case dismissals, no-fault judgments, and advantageous settlements.

Jason is a licensed attorney in Delaware, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, and is also a member of the Delaware State Bar Association. He earned his B.A. in criminal justice from The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey in 2005 and his J.D. from the Delaware Law School in 2011.

Jason is also an Adjunct Instructor at Wilmington University and currently teaches a course titled, "Legal and Ethical Environment of Business."
