

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Joseph McFadden

Joseph McFadden is vice president and managing director of business development for CSC[®] Global Financial Markets (GFM). He is responsible for managing new business growth in all GFM business segments, including bankruptcy and restructuring, capital markets, alternative investments, and fund administration. Joe's primary market focuses include mergers and acquisitions, securitization, real estate, private equity, fund administration, and restructuring.

Prior to managing business development, Joe was responsible for operational management and client service delivery for all GFM businesses. Since joining CSC in 2012, he has led operational efficiency, technological renovation, revenue growth, collaboration across the business units, and staffing and business development.

Joe is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute, the New York Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG), and the Financial Executives Alliance. He holds a B.S. in economics from the State University of New York at Albany.

 (302) 636-5859

 Joe.McFadden@cscglobal.com